

Véronique Monjardet

Dr. Véronique MONJARDET has over twenty years of consulting and services experience related to the life sciences industry challenges. For the past 15 years, she has invested in compliance field being a subject matter expert first for transparency globally but largely extended her compliance knowledge to risk assessment, process, HCP/Patient engagement Fair Market Value and any related topics. She holds a MBA in compliance and active member in Ethics and compliance associations.

She has a good experiment in delivery project, she has conducted many compliance reviews, gap assessment, risk assessments for large and mid-sized pharmaceutical, biotechnology and medical device companies with compliance issues related to sales, marketing and medical affairs.

Presently as an executive global compliance director for IQVIA, Ms Monjardet is responsible for all compliance activities addressing consulting, outsourcing or technology support for compliance regulations with a special focus on Medical devices and consumer health market.

Prior to joining back IQVIA, Ms Veronique Monjardet worked as Country manager France and Head of BD Europe at Polaris and started her compliance journey within Cegedim. Prior to his tenure at Cegedim, Ms. Monjardet worked as a scientist for drug and discovery services companies owning a PhD. in Chemistry.