

Tosin Umukoro

Tosin Umukoro is the European Senior Compliance officer at Stryker, where she leads a team of seasoned compliance professionals who serve as trusted coaches and strategic partners to all areas of the business. Her team ensures the reach and local tailoring of Stryker's global compliance and ethics program with its European operations, necessary to achieve the organisation's mission and for profitable, sustainable growth.

Tosin has 20 years of experience in the medical technology industry and is currently a member of MedTech Europe's code committee, Ethics international society of healthcare ethics and compliance professionals, and was formerly vice chair of the legal and compliance committee of the Association of British Healthcare Industries. Tosin is a Certified Ethics and Compliance Professional (Society of Corporate and Compliance Ethics), has a certificate in healthcare compliance ethics & regulation (Science Po/Seton Hall) and has published several articles for the corporate compliance insights publication and SCCE's award winning compliance and ethics professional magazine.